March 23, 2006

Dear Friends,

At our March 12, 2006 meeting, Central Philadelphia Monthly Meeting of Friends approved the following minute. Our worship on that day was filled with sorrow for the loss of the life of your member Tom Fox, gratitude for his work in the world and prayers for peace and for taking away the occasion of war. Members of Central Philadelphia Monthly Meeting held a peace vigil in Tom's name the weekend of his death.

Minute From Central Philadelphia Friends Meeting

To Langley Hill Friends Meeting

In this time of sorrow for the loss of your member, Tom Fox, we send our love and constant prayers to your Meeting community, and, in particular, to Tom Fox's family.

Our sorrow is accompanied with inexpressible gratitude for a man who rose to a life of peacemaking in a direct and humble way.

Friends at Central Philadelphia Friends Meeting join with Friends everywhere to honor a person who put human solidarity at the center of his spiritual life, and has lifted us all toward a fuller vision and practice of Friends testimonies.

We join with Tom Fox's family, your Meeting, and all Friends to find ways of keeping his life before us, and extending the message of his work for justice and peace.

Yours in God's love,

Kathleen Karhnak
