Dear Doug Pritchard:

Members of the Toronto Monthly Meeting held a Meeting for Worship on Sunday, March 12, 2006 in remembrance of Tom Fox. We remembered his concern for the people of Iraq and for the cessation of the violence in Iraq for all sides of the conflict there. We prayed for peace and reconciliation in that war-torn country, for which Tom Fox has given his life. With deep appreciation, we read aloud Tom Fox's searching words in Signs of the Times (Winter 2006), "Iraq: Why Are We Here?". We were challenged by his words. Members of our Meeting also attended the Memorial Service at Metropolitan United Church on Sunday, April 2.

We will continue to hold him in our thoughts and prayers, even while we give thanks that the other members of that CPT team, James Loney, Norman Kember and Harmeet Singh Sooden, have been freed.

We will also continue to ask ourselves what we can do further to bring about peace and reconciliation in Iraq, in addition to supporting, both spiritually and financially, the Christian Peacemaker Teams and others promoting peace there. We hold in the Light those who lived and worked with Tom Fox and those who continue to seek peace.

In friendship,
