Dear Friends,

Friends in Canada are deeply saddened to learn of the death of Tom Fox. It is difficult to understand what you, and all who knew and loved him, must be going through. A death so apparently senseless and wrongly-motivated is extremely hard to comprehend. Perhaps the only real comfort is that Tom, the two Canadian CPT members, Jim and Harmeet, and Norman all knew the dangers they were facing and had accepted them, and they realized that if they lost their lives, it would be in the service of God who sustains and awaits them.

Please accept our sincere sympathy, in the knowledge that our Friend Tom has gone to dwell in everlasting Light.

In Friendship and love,

Beverly Shepard
Clerk
