Dear Friend,

It is with much sorrow that we write expressing our sadness at the death of Friend Tom Fox in Iraq. We hold his family and all who knew him in the light.

From what we read of Tom, it is obvious that he was very committed to non-violence as a means of trying to solve some of the world's problems. His work with Christian Peacemaker Teams (CPT) bears testimony to this commitment.

Christian Peacemaker Teams is little known in Australia and just before Tom's death we organised for a New Zealand Friend, Christina Gibb, who is passing through Sydney to speak to us about her work with CPT. This meeting will be on 18 April.

We look forward to others using non-violence techniques as a means to resolving conflict.

In peace and friendship,

Peter Hillery
Convenor, Quaker Peace and Justice NSW
