Dear American friends, Christian Peacemakers.

It was with sadness that we read of the death of Tom Fox, a Christian peacemaker. How greatly we respect Tom, who, though he knew the danger his beliefs put him in, continued to steadfastly travel the road of a peacemaker.

We express our condolences to Tom's family and friends and to the people of Virginia and of all the United States.

We stand behind him, the other hostages and all who choose this manner to arrive at peace in our world. He follows the example of Martin Luther King, Mahatma Gandhi and the many pacifists of the world who have shown this way of living to be a strong message to the whole world.

May his peaceful sacrifice be an inspiration to all that there is an alternative to bearing arms to arrive at peace.

Sincerely,
Pat & Gerry Grundy
