

JANUARY

FRIENDS AT THE SPRING

FIRST MONTH, 2019

Worship Leader this month is Gaines Speer

Dates: Jan. 6th
Jan 13th
Jan 20th
Jan 27th

Themes for Sunday Spring Meetings in January, 2019, are on the next page.

On the 6th: A brief talk/discussion to honor Peace Pilgrim, a woman who walked 25,000 miles across N. America as a penniless pilgrim “...to overcome evil with good; falsehood with truth; hatred with love...”. We’ll share her thoughts on nonviolence; simplicity; hope; healing; service.

On the 13th: “Banned in the South”. A presentation of the profound work and influence of John Rogers, the “People’s Sculptor,” who made and distributed 70,000 cast sculptures during the period of the Civil War. Many subjects reflected abolitionists sympathies. Yes, there is a Quaker connection...

On the 20th: A (reduced) rendition of a one-man “play” which uses satire to explore “spontaneous epistemological transubstantiation”. What in the world is that? Written by a member of the Spring Meeting Community (who birthday is Jan. 17th). Discussion to follow...Guests are invited.

On the 27th: How Did You Become A Friend/ Quaker? Folk’s shared stories re “becoming a Quaker and what that means...” (individually and collectively). Lightly facilitated. Looking forward!

Announcements:

There will be a business meeting on the third Sunday, Jan 20th, at 9:30 a.m. in the Hut. You are welcome to bring a breakfast item.

EDITOR'S REVIEW

THE SPRING FRIENDS CHRISTMAS PLAY Dec. 23, 2018

A 5 Star () production and performance

The play was organized and directed by Katie Nelson, which included recruitment of some of the characters. The audience participated with songs throughout the play, bringing alive the story of Jesus' birth.

This uplifting presentation warmed the hearts of everyone present. We only hope that we can expect a repeat performance in 2019. (Put it on your schedule, Katie!).
