On Saturday June 16, there will be an open performance at the Snow Camp Outdoor Theatre in observance of “Juneteenth,” a celebration of when the news of Emancipation reached enslaved people in the farthest reaches of the Confederate South. The event begins at 7 PM, in the Shoffner Building, and will feature performances by James Shields as Frederick Douglass & Diane Faison as Harriet Tubman. Admission is free. Please join in! Here is a postcard size graphic of it:

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Alert! Our worship hour will begin at 10:00AM on Sunday, June 3rd.

We will have a business meeting on Sunday, June 17th following meeting for worship. We will also have a carry-in meal together after worship.

I leave behind even my walking stick. My knife is in my pocket, but that I have forgot. I bring no car, no cell phone,
no computer, no camera,
no CD player, no fax, no TV, not even a book. I go into the woods. I sit on a log provided at no cost.
It is the earth I've come to,
the earth itself, sadly abused by the stupidity only humans are capable of but, as ever, itself. Free.
A bargain! Get it while it lasts .
