2010 Sessions
July 28th through August 1st
of the
Ohio Valley Yearly Meeting
Religious Society of Friends
Celebrating Friends as Family: Nurturing the Future
2010 Ohio Valley Yearly Meeting Sessions: July 28-Aug. 1

What you are offered are five days of spiritual refreshment, intellectual stimulation, and an opportunity to make new (F)friendships and renew old ones as Friends of Ohio Valley Yearly Meeting’s monthly meetings gather at Earlham College to participate in activities designed to support and sustain the spiritual lives of yearly meeting Quakers.

As a member of your monthly meeting, you are also a member of the yearly meeting where members and attenders are warmly invited to participate in the 2010 yearly meeting sessions.

Friends from Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky gather for two to five days, depending upon employment and other commitments, with attendance swelling as Friends arrive for Friday evening, Saturday, and Sunday morning sessions. Program offerings include two evening plenary sessions with a major address on both Thursday and Friday evening. Eight different workshops, offered two afternoons, address an array of Quakerly issues and concerns, provide much food for thought and discussion.

Shared meals with other attendees provide informal opportunity to share ideas, experiences, and extended discussion beyond the workshops and business sessions.

The Yearly Meeting bookstore offers opportunity to examine books for sale by and about Quakers and Quakerism not commonly found in a single location; included are those authored and/or chosen by plenary speakers.

Any Friend with a special interest is encouraged to schedule a special interest group session that may be held any evening following an evening’s major activity. Schedule your event upon arrival.

For youth and teenagers, separate recreational opportunities abound for bicycle trips, and swimming interspersed with content loaded interactive programming to encourage young people to think, listen to and exchange ideas with peers and adult leaders about their lives and religious faith. Baby sitting, preschool and elementary age offerings are also included. During the week each age group helps prepare several acts for the Saturday evening talent show, enjoyed by Friends young and old.

Opportunities abound for worship sharing, viewing exhibits, group singing, and alternate worship. Meeting for worship with a concern for business is at the heart of morning activity alternating with afternoon workshop sessions.

2010 Yearly Meeting Program Sessions and Speakers

Plenary Session: Thursday, 7-8.30 pm, July 29
Max Carter: Nurturing the Spiritual Journey of Our Youth, the Future and Present of Friends

I will share from my experience of working with students at Guilford College in the Quaker Leadership Scholars Program and will reflect on their understanding of and experience with Quakerism and spirituality. Material will be drawn from student responses to an exercise in their course on the roots of the Quaker testimonies, an exercise that asks them to state their current responses to G-d, Christ, the Bible, worship, and the testimonies. These responses will then be linked with the experience of Friends discovering each other in new and vital movements within Quakerism, movements that challenge many of the “orthodoxies” along the entire Quaker spectrum. Related reading material can be found in the January/February 2010 issue of Quaker Life, and the writings of Shane Caiborne and Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove.

Plenary Session: Friday, 7-8.30 pm, July 30
Vonn New: Sounding the Divine

We will explore different doorways into experience of divine presence. Unprogrammed Quaker worship uses silence as a way for us to get our egos and notions out of the way and let Spirit work in us. Ministry comes out of that silence in the form of verbal messages; however, the experience of union with the divine that we experience in worship is beyond what we can express in words. By opening ministry to additional forms of expression, we may approach a more whole sharing of that experience. By inviting ministry as music, movement, and other forms of creative expression, we encourage more gifts from more people in our communities. People of all ages have found these experiences helpful in centering into communal worship, and the sense of being gathered into one body becomes tangible. Inter-generational groups can use these expanded forms of worship to build bridges across age barriers.

Workshop Wednesday, 1-2 pm, July 29
Friendly Adult Presence (FAP) training

This program is for adults wishing to volunteer to work with children in OVYM programs, and includes information from a spiritual and legal perspective.

Workshops: Thursday, 1.45-3.15, July 29
1. Michael Birkel: Family, Home, and Hospitality in Scripture

In this workshop, we’ll explore some biblical stories to consider how in scripture the notion of family reaches beyond the nuclear family, and even the extended family, to include the wider community. As members of God’s family, how do we practice hospitality and broaden our notion of spiritual home? It would be useful but not essential for attenders to bring a bible.

2. Bill Cahalan: Ecological Vision for a Sustainable Earth

There has been, among Americans and perhaps among Friends, a general discouragement and waning of the “faith in life” as Earth’s natural communities unravel, along with the economies and societies dependent on them. This faith is the trusting sense that we are nurtured and will continue to be sustained by the web of life and cosmos. Such a faith begins in childhood and often exists unconsciously, beneath words. I will lecture, invite questions and dialogue, lead a brief guided experience or two, and invite people to walk outdoors to more fully practice seeing with ecological eyes.

3. Max Carter: Ramallah Friends Meeting Centennial

This year Friends at Ramallah are celebrating one hundred years of Friends’ work in Palestine. We will reflect on how we can nurture our connections with the wider family of Friends, especially the Friends’ work in the Middle East now and in the future. Max Carter has taught at Ramallah Friends School, leads annual work/study trips to Israel/Palestine, and recently spent two months in Ramallah for the Centennial celebrations.

In this provocative workshop, participants will be invited to step into and then back from their understandings of money and to reflect on their own relationships with money and related ideas (prosperity, war, philanthropy, power, etc). Tools used for this exploration will include stories of money, memories such as first money earned, first money given away, and first spent. Additionally, we’ll look to sources of authority including scripture, Friends’ traditions, and the teaching of the Religious Society of Friends.
Registrar’s Notes:

If you have questions about registration, please contact Yoshiya Togami at imago.ty@gmail.com.

Anyone who has difficulty paying for the cost of attending Yearly Meeting should ask your monthly meeting if any assistance is available. Miami Quarterly Meeting also has funds available to support attendance at Yearly Meeting through the Cincinnati Fund. Contact Richard Mitchell at (859) 277-6101 or Susan Hyde at (937) 767-7756 for information about this resource.

Young Adult Friends and First-Time Attenders are especially welcomed to Yearly Meeting, and a 50% subsidy of all costs will be offered to Young Adult Friends (ages 18-35) and First-Time Attenders this year!

Why do we have to pay a $50 deposit? Earlham College requires that we let them know a guaranteed number of participants two weeks before yearly meeting begins. OVYM will have to pay the first day’s meals and room for anyone who registers but does not attend. We are therefore asking for a $50 deposit to complete the registration process. The deposit is not refundable after July 6.

Lost Keys: Earlham charges $40 for lost keys. Anyone who loses a key will be asked to reimburse OVYM for this expense. We will again provide those handy lanyards to help keep track of keys.

Contributions toward the cost of providing the children and youth programs are greatly appreciated. Please consider if you are led to help support the Yearly Meeting’s subsidy for all children and youth attending.

The Middle Youth Committee asks that committee meetings should not be scheduled during lunch on Thursday, to allow for the youth to meet with their Worship Mentors over lunch in the dining room.

Display Tables: Anyone wishing to have table space for a display MUST indicate this on the registration form.

Golf Carts will be available for persons needing transportation. Please check this on the registration form if needed. When you are at Earlham, you may request transportation by calling Runyan Desk (765) 983-1200.

Housing: We will again all be housed in the Mills dormitory, between Warren and Wilson. All rooms are air conditioned. There are kitchens and lounges on each floor. You can see a map of Earlham campus on the Earlham website, www.Earlham.edu (just click on "about Earlham" and then on "campus map.")

Single Rooms: Please indicate on the registration form if you need a single room, or whom you would be willing to room with. The registrar wants to make you as comfortable as possible! But PLEASE register early if you prefer a single room, as there are only a limited number available.

Items to bring: Earlham College does NOT provide linens or towels, so everyone MUST bring their own towel, pillow, sheets and blankets.

You may want to use the following checklist:

- Towel
- Pillow
- Sheets and blankets, or sleeping bags.
- Alarm clock and reading lamp are very useful in the dorm rooms.
- You may also want to bring snacks for evening get-togethers
- Middle Youth should bring a bicycle, bicycle lock, helmet, and water bottle.
- Teens should bring a bicycle, bicycle lock, helmet, and water bottle.
- To help care for the earth, please bring a reusable water bottle and a cloth napkin for meals.

Volunteers needed. Please indicate if you are willing to help with youth or those with special needs. Note that anyone who volunteers to work or drive with the youth must have appropriate training and certification, and volunteer drivers must have appropriate insurance coverage.

FAPs needed: The teen group is seeking adults who have had training as a Friendly Adult Presence (FAP) who would be willing to be scheduled for 3 hours of supervision during the night. If you are such a person, please list your name on the teen and middle youth program form. NOTE: Training for FAPs will be offered from 1:00 to 2:00 on Wednesday if you have not had the training. Please see the registration form.

I’m looking forward to seeing you all!

Thursday Afternoon Worship, 3.45-4.45, July 29
Worship in Three Forms:
- Spirituality through Music and Sound: guided by Jamie Fota and Vonn New
- Spirituality through Movement and Dance: led by Heidi Fledderjohn
- Spirituality through Worshipful Silence: Stout Meeting House

Workshops: Friday, 1.45-3.15, July 30

5. Dale Hayes: Providing Pastoral Care When There is No Pastor
In this workshop, we will broadly examine the notion of “pastoral care” and explore specifically what pastoral care means for unprogrammed Friends. How do we nurture our meeting family? The facilitator will share some examples of what his monthly meeting is doing by way of pastoral care for older friends and facilitate a discussion among attenders as to what other meetings are doing to care for members of all ages and the challenges they face in meeting pastoral needs.

6. Shannon Isaacs: HIV, Quakers, Women’s Issues, and Genocide in East Africa
We will start with a moment of silence. I will show pictures from my trip in summer, 2009, to Burundi and Rwanda along with some basic informational slides regarding the issues presented in the title of this workshop. Together, we will consider these interrelated problems. I will prepare some queries for reflection and we will discuss questions raised by workshop participants. We will close with silence.

7. Vonn New: Listening for Muses
We will combine meeting for worship with musical improvisation, movement, poetry, visual art, and other collaborative forms of expression. We will do exercises to build confidence and comfort with techniques of improvisation in sound and movement. In worship-sharing, we will explore how these alternative forms help us to open to new, non-verbal experiences of the Divine. In preparation, attenders might practice listening to the world around them considering: what sounds do I find beautiful and annoying? If annoying, does my attention change the sound? Can I hear beauty in the details of sound that I had not noticed before? What sounds make me feel joyful, generous, open, longing, sad?

8. Silent Worship:
Friends are invited to gather, reflect, and share in a time of worship at Stout Meeting House.
